

Before You Fly to Bali

The paperwork and planning that make arrival smooth. Work through it from a few months out to the day before you leave.

2 TO 3 MONTHS BEFORE

- ☐ Check your passport is valid for 6+ months after arrival
- ☐ Book flights and your first nights
- ☐ Buy travel insurance that covers scooters, diving and hospital care
- ☐ Ask your doctor about vaccinations (for example hepatitis A, typhoid, rabies)
- ☐ Sketch your route and how many days in each area
- ☐ Check the dates of Nyepi (March 8, 2027) and Galungan

2 TO 4 WEEKS BEFORE

- ☐ Apply for the e-VOA on the official site evisa.imigrasi.go.id only
- ☐ Pay the Bali tourist levy (IDR 150,000) at lovebali.baliprov.go.id
- ☐ Book your airport pickup or note the ride-hailing pickup point
- ☐ Get an International Driving Permit if you plan to ride a scooter
- ☐ Book popular tours early in high season (Batur, Nusa Penida, diving)
- ☐ Tell your bank you are traveling and check foreign ATM fees

THE WEEK BEFORE

- ☐ Fill in the All Indonesia arrival form at allindonesia.imigrasi.go.id
- ☐ Buy or install your eSIM
- ☐ Download Gojek, Grab, Google Maps (offline map) and Google Translate
- ☐ Save your hotel address and phone number offline
- ☐ Save the emergency number 112 and your insurer's hotline
- ☐ Download the free Discover Bali emergency PDF

THE DAY BEFORE

- ☐ Passport, e-VOA, levy QR and insurance in one folder
- ☐ Phone, power bank and adapter charged and packed
- ☐ Pack your medication in your carry-on
- ☐ Check in online and confirm your pickup

More travel tips & emergency info

Visit discoverbali.org for in-depth guides, the interactive map and the free emergency PDF.